Greenpeace Canada to be represented at climate open house and showcase the power of solar

2 September 2015 (Edmonton) – Greenpeace representative Mike Hudema will be at tonight's Edmonton climate consultation open house and Greenpeace volunteers will be setting up a solar powered trailer to demonstrate one of the types of energy the organization believes the province should be moving to.

Who: Greenpeace representatives and volunteers.

What: Greenpeace media availability and solar trailer.

When: 5:30 pm, today, Wednesday, September 2, 2015.

Where: Chateau Louis Hotel & Conference Centre Grand Ballroom, 11727 Kingsway Ave.

In addition to attending the open house, Greenpeace has launched a campaign called Get Fresh Alberta to try to engage more Albertans in the provincial consultation. You can view the website at www.getfreshAlberta.ca.
