

Bhopal in Institute?

The circle shows the 11 mile distance that ethyl oxide could travel, at dangerous levels, in a 'worst case' accident at Union Carbide, a subsidiary of the Dow Chemical Company. The federal danger level for ethyl oxide is 1,900 ppm. 155,000 people live within this area.

Source: Dow Chemical Risk Management Plan (RMP)

