

Bhopal in Midland?

The circle shows the 19.6 mile distance that hydrogen chloride could travel, at dangerous levels, in a 'worst case' accident at the Dow Corning plant in Midland. The federal danger level for hydrogen chloride is 50 ppm. 330,000 people live within this area.

Source: Dow Corning Risk Management Plan (RMP)

