This survey was conducted online between April 29 and May 13 of 2016 from a panel of registered voters age 18 to 34 recruited by YouGov. The data were weighted to match the U.S. Census distribution of gender and race within each of the four target states.
Young voters are most concerned about jobs and the economy, followed by national security, money in politics, and income inequality.

Please rank the following issues in order from most to least concerning, with 1 being the issue that concerns you the most and 9 being the issue that concerns you the least.

- Jobs and the economy: 2.74
- National security and terrorism: 4.22
- The influence of big money in politics: 4.69
- Income inequality: 4.74
- Student loan debt: 5.53
- Climate change and the environment: 5.54
- Immigration: 5.62
- Racial injustice: 5.85
- Reducing gun violence: 6.07
Money in politics is a major concern, and a plurality say money has equal influence over both parties.
Democrats view banks and oil and gas companies as most harmful to the Democratic process

In your view, which THREE of the following organizations and interest groups are most harmful to the democratic process? Please rank your three choices from more to less harmful, with 1 as the most harmful organization or interest group. (ROTATE)

Harmful to Democracy – Multiple Response

- Wall Street banks: 75% (Dem men), 65% (Dem women)
- Oil and gas companies: 75% (Dem men), 70% (Dem women)
- Big donors such as the Koch Brothers: 61% (Dem men), 59% (Dem women)
- Pharmaceutical companies: 40% (Dem men), 45% (Dem women)
- The healthcare industry: 27% (Dem men), 35% (Dem women)
- Labor unions: 11% (Dem men), 15% (Dem women)
- Environmental groups: 10% (Dem men), 10% (Dem women)
Greenpeace
Millennial Voters Survey
May 2016