ORDER AND ANTI-SUIT
INJUNCTION

¶ 1. Pursuant to the directive of the supervisory writ from the Supreme Court of North Dakota, the Court enters an anti-suit injunction enjoining the Defendant Greenpeace International (GPI) from pursuing any claim in GPI’s currently pending lawsuit against the Plaintiffs Energy Transfer L.P. and Dakota Access L.L.C. (ET) venued in the Netherlands (Dutch action), as further delineated herein.

¶ 2. The Court enjoins GPI from pursuing any claim in the Dutch action where the elements of the asserted claim require, as pled, any finding the North Dakota case lacked legal foundation.

¶ 3. The Court enjoins GPI from attempting to avoid or circumvent this injunction by repleading any barred theory under a different label. This injunction does not extend to any claim that does not require the Dutch court to find the North Dakota claims unfounded.

¶ 4. GPI is enjoined from seeking damages or other remedy in the Dutch action that would affect the North Dakota jury verdict or otherwise erase any final award of damages in the North Dakota action, as the North Dakota Supreme Court specifically stated any attempt to “contradict and offset the verdict” or otherwise nullify the Court’s final judgment would not qualify as a legitimate parallel action.

¶ 5. This injunction does not bar GPI from pursuing claims based on the dismissed federal RICO action or the alleged out-of-court defamatory statements, or pursuing claims premised on its “abusive court proceedings” as long as those actions do not require the Dutch action to find the adjudicated North Dakota claims unfounded and the pursued claims do not violate the prohibitions listed herein.

¶ 6. Within fourteen days of the filing of this Order, GPI shall take all steps necessary to withdraw or dismiss the enjoined claims in the Dutch action. Within twenty-one days of the date of the filing of this Order, GPI shall file with this Court a declaration, executed by a person with authority to act on behalf of GPI, certifying the steps GPI undertook to comply with this Order, accompanied by copies of any filings made in the Dutch action to affect that compliance.

¶ 7. This Order is effective upon filing. GPI shall take all steps necessary to cease pursuing the enjoined claims in the Dutch Action and shall not prosecute, assist in prosecuting, or cause to be prosecuted any claim inconsistent with this Order.

¶ 8. IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated the 27th day of July, 2026, and filed on the 3rd of August, 2026.
